

I oppose the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Our Attorney General has worked very hard to give the Indiana residents some say over who is allowed to call them without invading their privacy. Since the Indiana Telephone Privacy law went into effect, we have not been bothered by very many annoying sales calls as we were previously. We would like to keep this law in effect. Thank you.